NO STRAW BALLOT PARK SITES

WILL WAIT FOR REPORT EXPERT ON PLANNING

The motion previously adopted by the council to place all park sites on an advisory ballot at the coming city election, was rescinded at the meeting last evening, and there will be no straw ballot taken.

It was the general opinion of the members that the cart was getting placed before the horse, and that with the city planning at work, and no report made by the expert that had been employed, to submit the different sites to the voters would only result in confusion.

City Attorney D. J. Hall submitted two forms of ballots, when the question was first brought up. One form provided the voter expressing an opinion "yes" or "no" as to the acquisition of parks, and also a place for expressing a preference on the sites.

The second ballot provided for the following question "Vote for one of the following park sites."

Neither of these ballots seemed to be satisfactory, and at this juncture Attorney T. H. De Lap stated that it looked to him like it was a foolish proposition to hire a planning expert, and before he had a chance to make a survey of the city and make a report, to ask the people to select some piece of land that might not fit in with the plan the expert would finally recommend. His idea was for the council to leave the park matter alone until the planning commission report had been filed, and then put up the sites advocated by the expert as a bonding proposition.

During the discussion Charles Swartout, representing the Butts property, charged the council with acting in bad faith. He said the Butts people would not withdraw their offer, but said had the known that this action was to be taken that he would have got a petition and forced the site on the ballot.

Nearly all of the members of the council expressed the opinion that to take a straw ballot at the present time would be ill advised. The result was that the motion, adopted some time ago, to put all sites on the ballot, was rescinded.

C.C. TO ELECT DIRECTORS AT MEETING ON FRIDAY EVEN'G

Arrangements under way for the annual gathering of active paid members of the Chamber of Commerce to occur on Friday evening 6:30, at Richmond Club, promise one of the leading events in the history of the organization. The fact that many of the members have never met each other, and San Francisco, Oakland and other cities will be well represented, adds to the urgency of making the meeting one with important features.

Harry S. Maddox, former secretary of the Sacramento chamber of commerce; Joseph E. Caine, managing director of the Oakland chamber of commerce, and two other speakers will be announced. There will be but the four numbers on the program, each for a five minute period.

Following this, the proposed directorate of one representative of the following will be introduced: Manufacturers, bankers, merchants, railways, utilities, city and county, and the press.

Seven directors are chosen for nomination. A members forum will take the place of the advisory board previously suggested. The directors will elect a president, vice-president, secretary-manager and treasurer.

A social hour will be in order and members will be allowed and urged to talk of the functions of the chamber of commerce for the ensuing year.

Music will be furnished by a quartet of real Hawaiian players who give their native folk songs and instrumental numbers.

Button Lath Will be Permitted

In order to encourage building in the city "button" lath is to be permitted in the future. The council last night instructed City Attorney Hall to amend the building ordinance, so that it will be optional with those intending to build as to whether they will use metal lath or "button" lath.

The latter has been approved by the board of fire underwriters, and is now being used in many buildings in Oakland and San Francisco.

It is stated that "button" lath is much cheaper than metal lath, and on one building alone, in this city, it is stated the difference between the two kinds would be $600 in favor of "button."

Streets of City to be Protected

The first reading of an amendment to ordinance No. 476, which governs the loads that trucks and other vehicles may carry over the streets of this city, as given at the meeting of the council last evening.

The amendment is to cover the moving steam rollers and ditch diggers over the thoroughfares. It provides that machines weighing over 30,000 pounds shall not be moved over a paved street, without first securing a permit, and then bonds must be laid on the streets over which it is to pass.

A violation of the ordinance a penalty of $500 or six months in the county jail is fixed.

Permit For Soft Drink Place To Be Investigated

The application of Mat Stanley for a permit to conduct a soft drink place inside of the baseball grounds at First and Macdonald, brought out quite a bit of discussion at the meeting of the council last evening.

No action was taken, as some of the members stated they wanted to make an investigation to ascertain whether or not those who operated the grounds intend to farm the privilege out.

RODEO LOCAL ISSUED BY DIST. ASSOC. OF OIL UNIONS

Suit to collect $694 alleged to be due from the Rodeo local No. 17 of the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America, et al., was filed in the Superior Court in Martinez yesterday by the District Council, District No. 1, International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America, and others.

The complaint recites that last year a committee of the District Council of the International Association of Oil Worker's unions, being the plaintiff in the action, was appointed to represent the oil workers before the Federal Mediation Board then sitting in San Francisco for the purpose of adjusting the wage scale of the oil fields and refinery workers.

It is further alleged the committee was to be reimbursed for services by the various subordinate unions affiliated with the District Council, each local union paying a per capita pro rate of the total expense of the committee. The Rodeo union, according to the complaint, voted 106 for and 29 against raising the funds to pay the committee by assessment. Following the vote, the complaint continues, the sum of $831 was collected for this purpose but only $137 was paid to the District Council.

The total expense of the committee, the complaint sets forth, was $22,172.37. The total sum already paid in by all of the local unions to defray this expense is $19,293. It is claimed, leaving a deficit of $2,879.36 to be met.

The plaintiff alleges that the Rodeo union on still owes $694 as its share of the expenses and a judgment against the organization to that amount is asked. H. J. Wildgrube is attorney for the plaintiff.

TOO MUCH RED FLAG

There is altogether too much waving of the red flag going on all over the world; too much of it right here in the United States of America, and especially too much all over Europe. Russia started in with it, with the result that a hell-upon-earth has been there for years. Italy also got a dose of it; then Germany, and now England. And in every instance it is the working men who are at the bottom of it, organized or otherwise. The condition in England is little short of that in Russia, and civil warfare has been narrowly averted of late. The farmers, peasants and people in all other walks of life are not implicated. It is the anarchistic element of labor—the loud-mouth and irresponsible firebrands of radicalism and the agitators who by their activity and the apathy of the majority have managed to gain control. They believe in sabotage, murder, arson, plunder and assassination, in running wild like savages and butchering anybody who seeks to interfere with their appropriation of all the wealth and goods of the world. There is nothing to do with those kind of elements that will have any effect upon them, except to give them plenty of powder and lead, and what is just exactly what thousands of them are going to get, all over the world, before this year 1921 is ended. People everywhere are getting mighty tired of lawlessness, and the red flag means nothing else. Any but when he starts in to interfere with any other man has a right to quit his job if he wants to, man that does want to work, and destroys property and acts like a crazy lunatic generally, he must be treated as such. The coal mines of England are now wantonly flooded with water, doing millions in almost irreparable damage, while stores are being plundered and banditry is running riot. Everywhere public sentiment condemns all that sort of thing, and justly so.

Herbert Hoover has an article in a New York paper on what peace has done for Europe. What-cha mean, peace? What peace? Whereabouts is it?

The tariff advocates in Congress are terribly exercised by the fear that Germany will dump no end of her goods upon America, and this irrespective of the fact that Germany has no goods to dump anywhere, and probably won't have for years.

Sane thrift and patient, constant toil are the only remedies that are going to cure the ills the earth is suffering from, and the quicker all people get that into their minds the quicker the ills will be cured.

The Turks are giving the Greeks a good drubbing, and while we have no more use for a Turk than a rattlesnake or skunk, still the Greeks have a licking coming, because of their fool action of firing the only man who ever forged them ahead and putting back a monarch who is pro-German and no good on general principles. Serves them right.

Joke: President Ebert says the "honor" of Germany prevents her from complying with the allied demands. Now laf.

The only chap we ever heard of who died from over work put in eighteen hours a day trying to evolve a scheme to get other people's money without working for it.

One middle state editor says in his paper of another that he is a composite Pecksniff and Uriah Heep, a tripe-vissaged taterdemelon, a howling dervish, a canting hypocrite and a sniveling Pharisee. If the scribe alluded to was anything else it is quite probable his contemporary would have said so. Come to think of it, however, we should think that was about enough. We should hate awfully to be all that at once.

The idle rich and the lazy poor are alike menaces to all mankind, and both should be man-handled by the government, the one by income tax and the others thrown into a chain gang and made build good roads for honest people to walk or drive over.

ONE WEAK SPOT

Many Richmond People Have a Weak Part and Too Often It's The Back

Many people have a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist.

Dull aching keeps up, day and night. Backache is often from weak kidneys.

In such a case kidney medicine is needed. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

For backache and urinary ills. Richmond people recommend the remedy. Ask your neighbor. Mrs. E. P. Howard, 575 N. Ninth St., Richmond, says: "I keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand. I know the value of them. I have used them when my kidneys were weak. I felt dull and languid and had frequent headaches. My back ached and my kidneys didn't act right. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured some at La-Moigne's Drug Store. They were just what I needed. They soon rid me of that tired feeling and strengthened my back and kidneys." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a "kiddy" remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Howard had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N.Y.

PAYS TO TRADE AT HOME

No mail order catalogue house ever paid a five-cent piece in its life in local taxes or in any way helping to build up or better the home town and community. They are blood-suckers that skim the cream and never contribute a penny for the community they bleed. The same is true about the big city merchant. Every dollar sent to them goes immediately out of local circulation—they never send a penny back for any purpose. The home merchant or business man of any kind, on the other hand, pays taxes, contributes to every scheme of upbuilding and betterment. He aids those of us who happen to be in trouble. He is our neighbor and our friend; he rejoices when we do well and he grieves when sorrow comes our way. If we are out of work or in trouble, he lets us have his goods and trusts us for them until we can get on our pins again, which the mail order house or big city merchant does not do. If you get any credit from them it will be upon the showing that you have a steady job at good pay. Otherwise he looks at you with the same geniality of a fish. The dollar spent at home goes all around town a hundred times, and does hundreds of dollars worth of business before it gets away, and likely comes right back to the spender, maybe several times. Even if prices were much higher at home, which they are not, still it would pay the biggest kind of dividends to trade at home, anyway. Nothing will kill a town so quick or so dead as trading away from home. It is as fatal as hookworm, smallpox or Bolshevism. It is as fatal as bad as home brew. Some people save six-bits once in a while by sending away for job printing, but the stuff they get back is on cheap paper, done by underpaid scab labor and never satisfactory. And so it is, generally, with all other goods. From any standpoint, trading away from home is a bad habit.

The lions went to the war and fought and, as usual in all such cases, the jackals, coyotes, wolves, vultures and buzzards stayed home and undertook to steal everything unprotected while the real men were away from home guard. Everybody all over the world is suffering from these hellhounds yet, including America, and their chief form of plunder is profiteering.

About the best and cheapest way to end the prohibition bandits would be for Congress to pass a law which would empty all the miserable poison in bonded warehouses into the gutters. This would let the distillers pay the banks what they owe and stop the looting of the warehouses by the crooks and grafters.

Ordinary vultures and buzzards wait until a fellow is dead before they begin to tear him to pieces and eat him, but the profiteer won't wait. He eats us alive, without even pepper or salt.

Several times during the winter New York has had as many as 20,000 men shoveling snow off its streets. No wonder the Democratic party got snowed under.

Maybe it is possible to learn to like garlic. It is likely an acquired taste like limburger cheese. We tried a little of both once, and could smell ourself coming around the corner for a week after. Never again.

Rats with stripes on them are said to be born in a Kentucky penitentiary, but whether this is attributable to the influence of the prison garb upon the rodential sensitiveness or the illicit still industry is not explained.

A woman juror in a Chicago law case exclaimed at one stage of the proceedings, "Oh, Heaven!" But Francis Heney, a prominent California lawyer who was trying the case, went her one better, and remarked: "Oh, Hell!"

The firecracker in various state legislatures which was set to go off and blow excessive taxation to pieces, has not made a noise yet, except in New York, owing to the governor there knocking out 500 unnecessary soft jobs. Otherwise the fuses seem to be wet.

NOW BERT IS WISE

"There's no getting away from it, Grace. Bert is a dear. I'll say there aren't many husbands like him. Just think of it, alone and unaided, and without the slightest hint from me, he told me he was going to get me a new coat next month. He's saving up for it now. What do you think of that?"

"Not so much. Why should he bother to save and wait till next month? Now's the time to get a coat, when you can enjoy a full season's wear. Cherry's store for women at 515 13th street, and the men's store, 528 13th street, have wonderful clothes which they sell on credit, at prices no higher than the cash stores. Tell that to Bert and you'll get your coat right away; and you might tell him, also, that he can get a suit and overcoat there for himself the same way. We know, because we've tried it.—Advertisement.

SETTLERS TRANSFORM LAST WEST OF PIONEER ROMANCE

PRINCE ALBERT, SASK.
Teams of boys and girls were judging dairy cattle at the exhibition of the Saskatchewan Dairymen's Association when Dr. A. McLaughlin of Rosthern arose.

"I am proud of such a successful display," he said. "The future of agriculture in the province will be safe in their hands. Such children are our farm's best products. The first prize in this contest is $12. I am going to make it more worth while by offering a purebred Holstein bull."

Dr. McLaughlin's generous pride in the youngsters proved contagious. He had hardly sat down when C. E. Thomas of Lloydminster offered a purebred Ayrshire heifer as second prize. Others offered large sums in cash as the remaining prizes.

The team from Melfort won first prize, scoring ninety-nine points out of a possible hundred. A team from Lashburn won second prize with only two points less. A Birch Hills team won third. Nineteen teams, each composed of eight boys and girls, competed. Only seven points separated the first and last teams.

Less than fifty years ago, central and southern Saskatchewan trappers used to take furs. When the newly built railways brought immigrants swarming in, the province soon took rank as the greatest wheat producing area of Canada, and it now promises to become the greatest dairying region of the nation.

Well filled Reservoirs Protect this Company's Earnings—and the Stockholders' Dividends

THE two great storage reservoirs—San Pablo and San Leandro—have been well filled by the rains of the past winter.

The East Bay Water Company is in a position to meet the water supply needs of the community for the next ten years.

The company has today in its storage reservoirs more water in reserve than at any time during the 53 years existence of it and its predecessors.

Adequate water reserve is another factor of safety to this issue of

Class "A" Cumulative Preferred Stock

The Home-Staying Dollar

Is the dollar that counts in the long run. It's the dollar that eventually "comes back." If Jones buys a suit of clothes from Smith and Smith buys a pair of shoes from Jones the dollars involved in the transaction stay in Richmond and both Jones and Smith make a profit.

If, however, Jones buys his suit in some other town and Smith goes elsewhere to buy his shoes, both Jones and Smith lose a profit and the money each spends may never come back to Richmond.

Too many Richmond people buy suits and shoes—and many other necessities—in other cities. Richmond is a prosperous community to be sure, but not nearly so prosperous as it would be if we all remembered that the home-staying dollar.

Makes Business Good

ROUTINE BUSINESS OF CITY COUNCIL

All members of the council were present last evening with the exception of Councilman J. N. Hartnett.

A letter was read from Assemblyman Long in which he stated that assembly bills 230 and 231 which takes power away from municipalities and placed them in the hands of the railroad commission had passed the assembly, but that he had voted "no."

The petition for the improvement of Twenty-fourth street from Esmond avenue to the southern limits of Soli addition, was referred to the street committee. A 24 foot roadway is asked for. A petition to set the curb brakes and improve all of the streets in the Pullman townsite, between Sattling and Potero was referred to the street committee.

The light committee will investigate of placing an arc light at the corner of Eighth and Bissell.

The report of city treasurer I. R. Vaughn showed there was a balance on hand of $295,089.65.

During the month of March the report of Tax Collector J. O. Ford showed that $10,684.33 has been collected.

The police department handled 33 cases during March and collected $59 in fines.

F. and M. Toya was granted a soft drink permit for 3322 Wall avenue, in the Pullman district.

The license committee asked for more time to consider the application of William Voss for a soft drink permit for N. 20 Cottage avenue.

Plans and specifications for the improvement of McBryde avenue were adopted.

Humane Sunday Will Be Observed On 17th This Month

At a meeting of the American Humane Society in 1914 a resolution was adopted calling for a National Humane Sunday and to this was combined the Be Kind to Animals Week, the first observance of which was in 1915 and has since been an annual affair. This year the dates for the observance are from April 11 to 17, the latter date being designated as Humane Sunday.

Many prominent people including Vice-President Coolidge are lending their support to this movement and President Harding has recently become a member of the society. The society combines with its work of looking after the treatment of dumb animals, that of the welfare of mistreated children. The work of the society is carried on to a great extent through the public schools. A class under Miss Woodman, Drawing Superintendent in the Richmond grammar schools, are working on drawings along the lines of this work which will be displayed in the windows of local business houses later in the week.

A campaign for membership in the local society is under way. The dues are fifty cents per year. A phone call number 945 J. will bring Mrs. T. N. Calfee, local secretary after the membership, or you may take the fee to her residence at 907 Macdonald Ave.

All Star Cast In Basil King's New Film Production

An all-star cast may be seen in Basil King's "The Street Called Straight," an Eminent Authors production presented by Goldwyn at the Richmond Theater today.

Directed by Wallace Worsley, this photoplay is acted with precise understanding of the character values of each role.

Charles Cleary does excellent work as Henry Guon, the oldest living representative of a New England family, who misuses funds entrusted to him in order to keep up appearances.

Naimi Clders is seen as Olivia Guon, his stately, proud daughter, who assured position in society makes her see life in terms of cynicism and boredom. From this she is aroused by the generosity of Peter Davenant and his absolute indifference toward her. In realizing her own limitations, she learns to appreciate his possibilities.

Milton Sills has the role of Peter Davenant, a chivalrous, good-looking young man who gladly advances his all to aid a friend in trouble. In direct contrast to Davenant is Colonel Rupert Ashley, played superbly by Lawson But. He seems to be consecrated to the idea of being worthy of his ancestors.

Irene Richs magnetic personality and charming presence add distinction to the part of Drusilla Fane, an attractive widow. Alec Francis is always good. His work as Rodney Temple is just another example of his consummate skill on the screen. Lydia Yeamans T has gives a splendid impersonation of Aunt Vic, Mme. De Melcourt, and Jane Sterling as Mrs. Temple completes an excellent cast.

An educational-scenic reel and a Peerless comedy complete the bill.

Methodist Church South Dedicated Sunday Morning

The new tabernacle of the Methodist Episcopal Church South was formally dedicated Sunday. The dedication service was held in the forenoon. A very impressive sermon was delivered by Bishop De Bose to a large and appreciative congregation. The preliminary steps of organizing a Sunday school was taken by the teachers and children in the morning.

Rev. U. G. Reynolds, of Oakland, the pastor, preached the evening sermon. Rev. Reynolds has made a host of friends here both without as well as among his own congregation, and under his guidance the new church will no doubt take a leading place in the moral and spiritual life of this city.

AMARANTHS SOCIAL EVENING

The Order of Amaranths met Monday evening in regular session at the Masonic Hall and after attending to routine business the evening was spent in a social manner.

THROAT TROUBLE CURED.

Oakland, Nov. 1, 1920. To whom it May Concern:

I suffered from throat trouble for 15 years, during which time I could neither eat nor swallow without pain. I became very weak and was unable to work for months. I had numerous doctors and then tried a Throat specialist, who told me that my trouble was due to the blood. He advised me to take blood medicine. Thereupon my brother, who had been cured of Stomach Trouble by the FONG WAN HERBS, urged me to try them. After drinking the herbs for 15 weeks, I felt entirely well. I have since gained 35 pounds. It is 10 months since I took the herbs, and I am now giving this testimonial to let the public know that any sufferer should try the FONG WAN HERBS. I am a watchman for the California Food Specialties Co.

Would Abolish Business License

At a meeting of City Attorneys of Central California held in San Francisco Saturday night, plans were adopted for fighting the bill now before the legislature to do away with business licenses.

City Attorney, D. J. Hall states that if the measure becomes a law, the collection of a business license in any municipality in California will be prohibited.

The matter of an increase of rates of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, now before the Railroad Commission for a hearing was also a matter of consideration at the meeting of the attorneys. The ruling of the Commission in the matter of reducing the surcharge granted to Electric Companies of 15 cents to 10 cents is viewed with favor.

A further provision of the ruling provides that the surcharge must be held intact by the power companies pending the outcome of the present rate hearing.

FREE CAMP GROUNDS AT 23RD AVENUE BE FIXED UP

As a result of the communication sent to the council by W. J. Wallace, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, asking that equipment be installed at the free camp grounds at the corner of Twenty-third and Macdonald, the matter was referred to City Manager J. A. McVittie, to ascertain what the needed improvements would amount to, and report back to the council at its meeting next Monday night.

The general opinion expressed by the members of the council was that the free camping ground was a big asset to Richmond.

The letter read at last night's meeting of the council was as follows:

To the Honorable Mayor and Council of the City of Richmond:

During the past year Richmond has introduced and maintained for the convenience of traveling motorists, a small camp ground on Bissell Avenue between Eighth and Ninth streets, on property belonging to the city and devoted to the schools. We have been obliged to withdraw from the use of this property for the coming year and have obtained from San Francisco and Oakland railways a lease on the property at 23rd and Macdonald. The lease is now in the hands of your city manager and contains no obligation of the city to the lessor.

In order to equip this camp ground for use this season we require adequate conveniences

SECOND ROMANCE RICHMOND GIRL CHECKED BY PROBATION OFFICER

Spilling her second youthful romance by arresting her on her wedding day, Miss Ethel Willis of 235 Thirteenth street, Richmond, was spirited away from Oakland by state probation officers on Wednesday, and taken to the Detention Hospital in San Francisco, awaiting removal to the California School for Girls at Ventura.

Miss Willis was found at the Arcadia dance hall in Oakland by Mrs. F. W. Moore, state probation officer, and declares that she is being returned to the home in the south charged with breaking a parole granted her on March 1. On that date she came north to see her father, Edill George Willis, who is said to be ill at the family home.

Miss Willis, who was committed to the Ventura institution from Sacramento following the escape of her first marriage, brings charges against the school of a similar nature to those made public last month.

"I did not violate my parole and they have no right to take me back again to the school," said the girl this afternoon as she lay on a cot at the Detention Hospital. "I came north to see my father, but I was so ill that I was forced to undergo an operation. I left home to go to the hospital, and it is because I did so without notifying the authorities that they accuse me now of breaking my parole.

"If they had let me have my freedom for a few hours longer, I would have been married. My wedding date had been fixed for Wednesday at 11 o'clock. I was going to marry an Oakland boy with whom I went to school in Sacramento. No, I won't tell his name. I don't want him to get any notoriety on my account.

"Conditions at the California School for Girls are as bad as reported. The reason I had to be operated upon was because of the effect of being kept in a straight jacket for six days, when I refused to work on the farm barefooted. That is only one of many things that happened to me down there. When I left the hospital I got work at the Arcadia and it was there that I was arrested."

Miss Willis was formerly Mrs. Ethel Pugh, wife of Raymond Pugh of Sacramento. She claims that she and her husband were separated. Later she says she obtained a divorce.

"I was sent to the school because one night I went to a dance and didn't get home until morning and my mother complained, and Judge Shields of Sacramento sentenced me. I have not done anything wrong since."

THE S. F. MARKETS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—Butter attained a further high range and eggs were firmer during the morning session of the San Francisco Dairy Exchange. Butter is still under the influence of an Eastern demand of about three cars a week and has been advancing by easy stages, this morning going up 1½ cents to 33c for extra choice and 1 cent to 32c for prime firsts. Eggs advanced ½ cent.

for the tourists as compared with other camp grounds in northern California. Cities of this state have made appropriations sufficient to cover the expense of such equipment. We have arranged already for water and light, and have the necessary equipment for toilets and a wash room, but we desire to construct a driveway and to lay out the camp ground in a manner which is justified by the good name of our city and also the fact that this is the only municipal camp ground between Sacramento and San Jose. We are having calls daily for the camping privilege inasmuch as last year we spread abroad the news that Richmond had a camp ground and obtained not only the credit for such but a reputation which we must now protect.

We will appreciate your consideration of this subject and the privilege of appearing before you to discuss our plan further.

Yours very truly,
RICHMOND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Secretary-Manager.

STRUCK BY AUTO--NO AID IS GIVEN

G. Vanderbundt of Antioch and his four year old daughter, Harriet, were seriously injured late Sunday afternoon as they were walking along the county highway near Brentwood and were struck by a passing automobile. After striking Vanderbundt and his daughter, the occupants of the car did not stop to render assistance, but continued on their journey.

Vanderbundt suffered a deep gash in his head and numerous cuts and bruises about his body while his young daughter had her hand crushed and it is feared she may have internal injuries. The two laid at the side of the road, where they had been buried by the automobile, until another passing car picked them up. They were taken to Brentwood where they were treated by Dr. Cook and later in the evening were brought to the hospital at Martinez for treatment.

Profits Union Oil Company On Increase

Union Oil Company of California, reporting yesterday for the March quarter, shows an increase of $900,000 in net profits before taxes, but after depreciation, depletion and drilling allowances; an increase of 175,000 barrels in the total production of crude oil, but a decrease of 500,000 barrels in stocks of oil on hand. The comparison in each instance is made with the figures for the March quarter of 1920.

The financial statement for the three months ended March 31, 1921, follows:

Profit subject to depreciation and federal income and excess profits taxes: 1921, $6,000,000; 1920, $4,500,000.

Provision for depreciation, depletion and labor and incidental cost of new drilling 1921, $2,200,000; 1920, $1,600,000.

Profit subject to federal income and excess profits taxes: 1921, $3,800,000; 1920, $2,900,000.
